ACCORDION WAVES suona italiano

Nuovo C.D.M.I. prima Collezione 2021

a cura di Patrizia Angeloni

Gar schöne Spiele spiel' ich mit dir (2020)

Nota dell'autore al brano

Il trio Gar schöne Spiele spiel' ich mit dir trae il proprio DNA dal lied schubertiano Erlkönig, prendendone in prestito la figura ritmica essenziale della terzina, il gesto ritmico-melodico del basso pianistico (portatore di un determinante 'sapore' armonico e umorale) ed un estratto melodico che comprende nell'originale vocale il verso qui elevato a titolo.

I 'bei giochi' promessi da quest'ultimo sono quelli che mi ha dato piacere fare con gli elementi appena menzionati, tanto localmente, quanto globalmente, permettendomi di avere appunto un DNA da cui far germogliare l'intera composizione: un organismo musicale il cui forte legame biologico col 'genitore' non ne inibisce l'affermarsi come 'individuo' a sé.

Nota per gli esecutori

L'indicazione “Come musica elettronica” posta all'inizio andrebbe letta immaginando che il proprio suono – e dunque quello di tutto l'insieme – sia gestito da un tecnico audio o DJ dietro una mixing console, e che egli possa intervenire su ciascuno strumento come fosse l'output di un canale di questa. Il risultato di tale azione immaginaria dovrà quindi dare vita ad un contrappunto di dissolvenze incrociate in entrata e in uscita (fade in e fade out possibili).

Le sezioni caratterizzate da questa indicazione (lettera A, battute 1-6 e F, battute 1-2) avranno anche un carattere di sostanziale freddezza, e si cercherà di conferire al suono d'insieme un sapore sintetico e uniforme, per poi scioglierlo progressivamente in un suono più caldo e umanamente espressivo (a partire da battuta 7 e nuovamente da 71).

La parte di fisarmonica è notata in altezze reali e per la tastiera destra l'esecutore può scegliere liberamente quale registro adottare tra quelli suggeriti all'inizio. In alternativa, si potrà scegliere di usare anche ulteriori registri, avendo però sempre cura di mantenere l'equilibrio sonoro tra le due tastiere.

Roberto Ventimiglia

Author's foreword

The DNA of the trio Gar schöne Spiele spiel' ich mit dir lies in the lied Erlkönig by Franz Schubert, whose musical material is partially borrowed and used to write the new score: it is the case of the basic triplet rhythmic item, of the rhythmic and melodic gestures of the original piano bassline and a vocal melodic excerpt (the one supporting the original text line which is now serving as the title).

The 'beautiful games' promised by the title are those I enjoyed playing with the above-mentioned items, both locally and globally, and which allowed me to have a core DNA to shape my whole new composition with. Ultimately, I tried to create a musical organism whose deep biological bond with its 'parent' wouldn't prevent it from affirming its own identity.

To the performers

The “Come musica elettronica” marking placed at the very beginning of the piece should be intended as if the sound – both individual and general sounds – was managed by a technician or DJ on a mixing console. The result of such an imaginary action must create a sort of fade in/fade out counterpoint.

The sections characterized by that very marking (section A, bars 1-6 and F, bars 1-2) must have a cold feeling, a synthetic flavour, which will dissolve progressively and make way for a more expressive and 'human' sound (respectively starting from bar 7 and 71).

The accordion part is written in concert pitch and for the right-hand keyboard the performer can choose on his own what register to use amongst the ones that are suggested at the beginning. It could also be possible to choose other different registers, but always keeping both of the keyboards perfectly in balance.
